

Historicizing intelligence - Theory, methodology and historiography

Workshop, 9 – 11 November

Tuesday 9 November

University of Oslo, Blindern

10:00 Coffee (Georg Morgenstiernes Hus, Seminarrom 219)

10:30 Welcome

Jon Røyne Kyllingstad

10:45 Session 1

Intelligence and medicalisation: Some historiographical considerations

Svein Atle Skålevåg, comments by Susanne Bauer

12:00 Lunch (Helga Spiseri, Helga Engs hus)

13:00 Session 2 (Helga Engs hus, seminar room U36)

Transnational, contextual and comparative studies of intelligence and intelligence tests

Christian Ydesen, comments by Annette Mülberger

14:15 Break

14:30 Session 3

Tests as things, collections, technologies, texts, objects, instruments, practices, product

Presented by Ageliki Lefkadiou, Solveig Marie Siem and Gard Paulsen

16:00 Break

16:15 Summary and discussions (Helga Engs hus, seminar room U31)

17:00 End

Wednesday 10 November
The University's Astronomical Observatory
Observatoriegata 1

10:00 Introduction and practical information
Gard Paulsen

10:15 Breakout sessions

Work package 1: Translating, adapting and diagnosing intellectual disability 1990–2020
Project participants: Jon Kyllingstad, Susanne Bauer and Håkon Caspersen
Advisory board:

Work package 2: Intelligence and mental ability testing in Norway 1897–2017: A long-term perspective on knowledge, objects and practices
Project participants: Ageliki Lefkadiou and Gard Paulsen
Advisory board: Isak Emberland, Anette Mülberger

Work package 3: Defining normality, diagnosing intellectual disability and allocating individual rights
Project participants: Linda Gröning, Svein Atle Skålevåg and Per Haave
Advisory board:

Work package 4: Psychometrics in Education 1945–2020: Subjection and/or liberation of the subject?
Fredrik Thue, Kim Helsvig and Kari Ludvigsen
Advisory board: Thom Axelsson, Sverre Tveit and Christian Lundahl

12:30 Lunch (at the observatory)

13:30 A guided tour of the observatory, Bjørn Vidar Johansen

14:00 Common concerns
Summary of break out sessions and further discussions by Jim Porter and Christian Ydesen

15:00 Break

15:15 Discussions

17:00 End

19:00 Workshop dinner (Telegrafan, Restaurant Bestorp, Kongens gate 21)

11 November

The University's Astronomical Observatory

Observatoriegata 1

09:00 Introduction and practical information

Ageliki Lefkadiou

09:15 Session 1: Historicizing what?

Gard Paulsen

10:00 Break

10:15 Session 2: How, when and what to communicate with whom

Ageliki Lefkadiou and Jon Kyllingstad

12:30 Lunch (At the observatory)